TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

PENTECOST NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS

The Pentecost Novena to the Holy Spirit is a powerful plea for the light, strength and love that we all need! We can prepare for the coming of the Holy Spirit and ask for the seven gifts - wisdom, knowledge, understanding, counsel, piety, fortitude, and fear of the Lord, by praying the Novena – which begins on Friday of the 6th Week of Easter and concludes on the Saturday before Pentecost.

Following the prayer of each day's novena, pray:

- One Our Father
- One Hail Mary
- Glory be to the Father...world without end* – seven times
- the Act of Consecration (below) and
- Prayer for the seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit (below).

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

To be recited daily during the Novena (as indicated above)

On my knees before the great multitude of heavenly witnesses, I offer myself, soul and body to You, Eternal Spirit of God. I adore the brightness of Your purity, the unerring keenness of Your justice, and the might of Your love. You are the Strength and Light of my soul. In You I live and move and am. I desire never to grieve You by unfaithfulness to grace and I pray with all my heart to be kept from the smallest sin against You. Mercifully guard my every thought and grant that I may always watch for Your light, and listen to Your voice, and follow Your gracious inspirations. I cling to You and give myself to You and ask You, by Your compassion to watch over me in my weakness. Holding the pierced Feet of Jesus and looking at His Five Wounds, and trusting in His Precious Blood and adoring His opened Side and stricken Heart, I implore You, Adorable Spirit, Helper of my infirmity, to keep me in Your grace that I may never sin against You. Give me grace O Holy Spirit, Spirit of the Father and the Son, to say to You always and everywhere, “Speak Lord for Your servant is listening.” Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

O Lord Jesus Christ Who, before ascending into heaven promised to send the Holy Spirit to finish Your work in the souls of Your Apostles and Disciples, deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me that He may perfect in my soul, the work of Your grace and Your love. Grant me: the Spirit of Wisdom, that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal; the Spirit of Understanding, to enlighten my mind with the light of Your divine truth; the Spirit of Counsel, that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining heaven; the Spirit of Fortitude, that I may bear my cross with You and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles that oppose my salvation; the Spirit of Knowledge, that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints; the Spirit of Piety, that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable, and; the Spirit of Fear, that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God and may dread in any way to displease Him. Mark me, dear Lord, with the sign of Your true disciples and animate me in all things with Your Spirit. Amen.

FIRST DAY (Friday of 6th week of Easter)

Holy Spirit! Lord of Light! From Your clear celestial height, Your pure beaming radiance give!

The Holy Spirit

Only one thing is important – eternal salvation. Only one thing, therefore, is to be feared – sin. Sin is the result of ignorance, weakness, and indifference. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Light, of Strength, and of Love. With His sevenfold gifts He enlightens the mind, strengthens the will, and inflames the heart with love of God. To ensure our salvation we ought to invoke the Divine Spirit daily, for “the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit itself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.” Rom 8:26

Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, who has vouchsafed to regenerate us by water and the Holy Spirit, and has given us forgiveness of all sins, vouchsafe to send forth from heaven upon us your sevenfold Spirit, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Fortitude, the Spirit of Knowledge and Piety, and fill us with the Spirit of Holy Fear. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

SECOND DAY (Saturday of 6th week of Easter)

Come. Father of the poor. Come, treasures which endure; Come, Light of all that lives!

The Gift of Fear

The gift of Fear fills us with a sovereign respect for God, and makes us dread nothing so much as to offend Him by sin. It is a fear that arises, not from the thought of hell, but from sentiments of reverence and filial submission to our heavenly Father. It is this fear that is the beginning of wisdom, detaching us from worldly pleasures that could in any way separate us from God. “Those who fear the Lord prepare their hearts and humble themselves before Him.” Sir 2:17

Prayer

Come, O blessed Spirit of Holy Fear, penetrate my inmost heart, that I may set you, my Lord and God, before my face forever, help me to shun all things that can offend You, and make me worthy to appear before the pure eyes of Your Divine Majesty in heaven, where You live and reign in the unity of the ever Blessed Trinity, God, world without end. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

THIRD DAY (Ascension Sunday [or, where Ascension is celebrated on Thursday, 7th Sunday of Easter])

Thou, of all consolers best, visiting the troubled breast, does refreshing peace bestow.

The Gift of Piety

The gift of Piety begets in our hearts a filial affection for God as our most loving Father. It inspires us to love and respect for His sake persons and things consecrated to Him, as well as those who are vested with His authority, His Blessed Mother and the Saints, the Church and its visible Head, our parents and superiors, our country and its rulers. He who is filled with the gift of Piety finds the practice of his religion, not a burdensome duty, but a delightful service. Where there is love, there is no labor.

Prayer

Come, O Blessed Spirit of Piety, possess my heart. Enkindle therein such a love for God that I may find satisfaction only in His service, and for His sake lovingly submit to all legitimate authority. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

FOURTH DAY (Monday of the 7th week of Easter)

Thou in toil art comfort sweet, pleasant coolness in the heat, solace in the midst of woe.

The Gift of Fortitude

By the gift of Fortitude the soul is strengthened against natural fear and supported to the end in the performance of duty. Fortitude imparts to the will an impulse and energy which move it to undertake without hesitancy the most arduous tasks, to face dangers, to trample under foot human respect, and to endure without complaint the slow martyrdom of even lifelong tribulation. "But the one who perseveres to the end will be saved." Mt 24:13

Prayer

Come, O Blessed Spirit of Fortitude, uphold my soul in time of trouble and adversity, sustain my efforts after holiness, strengthen my weakness, give me courage against all the assaults of my enemies, that I may never be overcome and separated from Thee, my God and greatest Good. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

FIFTH DAY (Tuesday of the 7th week of Easter)

Light immortal! Light Divine! Visit Thou these hearts of Thine, and our inmost being fill!

The Gift of Knowledge

The gift of Knowledge enables the soul to evaluate created things at their true worth – in their relation to God. Knowledge unmask the pretense of creatures, reveals their emptiness, and points out their only true purpose as instruments in the service of God. It shows us the loving care of God even in adversity, and directs us to glorify Him in every circumstance of life. Guided by its light, we put first things first, and prize the friendship of God beyond all else. "Good sense is a fountain of life to those who have it, but folly is the training of fools." Sir 16:22

Prayer

Come, O Blessed Spirit of Knowledge, and grant that I may perceive the will of the Father; show me the nothingness of earthly things, that I may realize their vanity and use them only for Your glory and my own salvation, looking ever beyond them to You, and Your eternal rewards. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

SIXTH DAY (Wednesday of the 7th week of Easter)

If You take Your grace away, nothing pure in man will stay; all his good is turned to ill.

The Gift of Understanding

Understanding, as a gift of the Holy Spirit, helps us to grasp the meaning of the truths of our holy religion. By faith we know them, but by Understanding we learn to appreciate and relish them. It enables us to penetrate the inner meaning of revealed truths and through them to be quickened to newness of life. Our faith ceases to be sterile and inactive, but inspires a mode of life that bears eloquent testimony to the faith that is in us; we begin to “live in a manner worthy of the Lord, so as to be fully pleasing, in every good work bearing fruit and growing in the knowledge of God.” Col 1:10

Prayer

Come, O Spirit of Understanding, and enlighten our minds, that we may know and believe all the mysteries of salvation; and may merit at last to see the eternal light in Your Light; and in the light of glory to have a clear vision of Thee and the Father and the Son. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

SEVENTH DAY (Thursday of the 7th week of Easter)

Heal our wounds, our strength renew; on our dryness pour Your dew; wash the stains of guilt away

The Gift of Counsel

The gift of Counsel endows the soul with supernatural prudence, enabling it to judge promptly and rightly what must be done, especially in difficult circumstances. Counsel applies the principles furnished by Knowledge and Understanding to the innumerable concrete cases that confront us in the course of our daily duty as parents, teachers, public servants, and Christian citizens. Counsel is supernatural common sense; a priceless treasure in the quest of salvation. “Then with all this, pray to God to make your steps firm in the true path.” Sir 37:15

Prayer

Come, O Spirit of Counsel, help and guide me in all my ways, that I may always do Your holy will. Incline my heart to that which is good; turn it away from all that is evil, and direct me by the straight path of Your commandments to that goal of eternal life for which I long.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

EIGHTH DAY (Friday of the 7th week of Easter)

Bend the stubborn heart and will, melt the frozen warm the chill. Guide the steps that go astray!

The Gift of Wisdom

Embodying all the other gifts, as charity embraces all the other virtues, Wisdom is the most perfect of the gifts. Of wisdom it is written “all good things came to me with her, and countless riches at her hands.” Wis 7:11 It is the gift of Wisdom that strengthens our faith, fortifies hope, perfects charity, and promotes the practice of virtue in the highest degree. Wisdom enlightens the mind to discern and relish things divine, in the appreciation of which earthly joys lose their savor, while the Cross of Christ yields a divine sweetness according to the words of the Savior: “Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For My yoke is easy, and My burden light.” Mt 11:29-30

Prayer

Come, O Spirit of Wisdom, and reveal to my soul the mysteries of heavenly things, their exceeding greatness, power and beauty. Teach me to love them above and beyond all the passing joys and satisfactions of earth. Help me to attain them and possess them forever. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.

NINTH DAY (Saturday of the 7th week of Easter; the Vigil of Pentecost)

O Holy Spirit, on those who evermore confess and Adore You, let Your sevenfold gifts descend; Give Them Comfort when they die; Give them Life with You on high; Give them joys which never end. Amen

The Fruits of the Holy Spirit

The gifts of the Holy Spirit perfect the supernatural virtues by enabling us to practice them with greater docility to divine inspiration. As we grow in the knowledge and love of God under the direction of the Holy Spirit, our service becomes more sincere and generous; the practice of virtue more perfect. Such acts of virtue leave the heart filled with joy and consolation, and are known as Fruits of the Holy Spirit. These Fruits, in turn, render the practice of virtue more attractive and become a powerful incentive for still greater efforts in the service of God; they are given, that we might serve the One who is to reign.

Prayer

Come, O Divine Spirit, fill my heart with Your heavenly fruits, with charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, faith, mildness, and temperance, that I may never weary in the service of God. By continued faithful submission to Your inspiration, may I merit to be united eternally with You in the love of the Father and the Son. Amen.

Pray: Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be, Act of Consecration, and Prayer for the Seven Gifts as directed on cover page.
